

P.M.P.
ADVANCED ELITE

History of a FAMILY

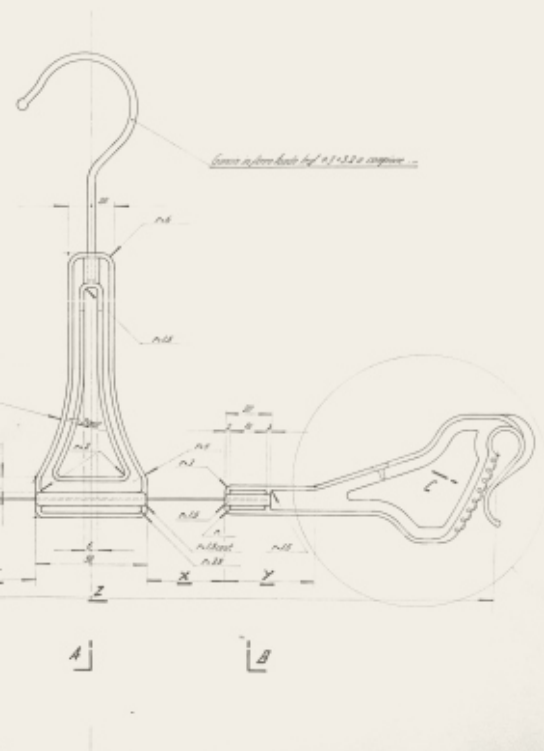

Angelo Spricigo had the great entrepreneurial intuition to anticipate what would later become an international need.

In 1967 he founded P.M.P. specializing in the production of clothes hangers by designing the first models himself.

Initially the P.M.P business was strongly linked to the Italian market only.

Over the years, the contribution of the new generations has led to important investments that have made possible a process of growth and expansion.

Even today, after 53 years, P.M.P. is constantly evolving.

The MISSION

The company mission is focused on the enhancement of clothing products by offering greater wearability and presentations of hanging garments and a strong attention and respect for the environment system with circular economy.

EVOLVING with FASHION

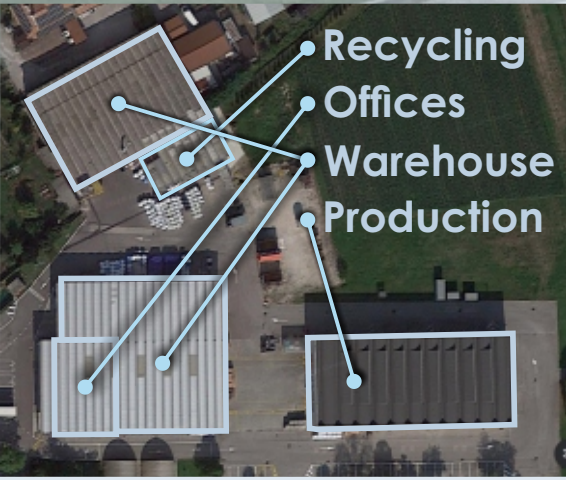

The commitment of P.M.P. in the search for new solutions and in the study of customer needs, it leads to the development of specific products.
